

Research Interests

Particular interests include: data ethics, hidden Markov models, machine learning, movement ecology, quantitative behavior analysis, reproducibility, trajectometry.

Education

- 2010–2013 PhD in Ecosystems (Quantitative Ecology), University of Montpellier 2 (UM2), France.
- 2009–2010 Master in Mathematics, Statistics and Applications, Montpellier SupAgro - UM2, France.
- 2002–2007 Bachelor of Engineering in Statistics, National University of Engineering (UNI), Peru.

Research and Work Experience

- 2021–present Senior data scientist, GLOBAL FISHING WATCH, Remote.
  - Description Lead data scientist in labor projects. At-sea behavior research lead. Research team management. Latin America research lead. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Data ethics.
- 2018–2021 Postdoctoral associate, UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA, Fort Lauderdale, USA.
  - Subject Seabird movement ecology modelling
  - Supervisor Dr. Mathieu Basille
  - Description Modelling seabird movement at multiple spatiotemporal scales using tracking data, and quantifying the association between movement patterns and environmental cues. Review of R packages for movement and participating in the creation of one. One first-authored publication has been accepted, one is available as a pre-print and the third one in preparation.
- 2016–2017 Postdoctoral associate, FRENCH RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR EXPLOITATION OF THE SEA, Nantes, France.
  - Subject Assessing joint-movement behaviour in ecology
  - Supervisor Dr. Stephanie Mahevas
  - Description A review of indices from the literature (medicine, physics, computer analysis, ecology, sports, psychology, etc.) for measuring dyad interaction was made and applied to simulated data. Then, a subset of indices was chosen and applied to several sets of fisher trajectories to analyse collective movement behaviour and strategies. All codes were written in R. One first-author publication is in review and one published.
- 2014–2016 Research associate, PERUVIAN MARINE RESEARCH INSTITUTE (IMARPE), Callao, Peru.

Rocío Joo. Global Fishing Watch

✉ rocio.joo@globalfishingwatch.org

- Subject Spatiotemporal dynamics of the Peruvian fishing fleets
- Description Analysis of spatial and temporal dynamics of fishing effort from the industrial anchovy and the multispecific artisanal fleets. Development of spatial indicators for monitoring both the fishery and the state of the resources (acoustic surveys). Computation of sampling size optima for at-sea observers via simulation. Programming in Matlab and R. Two first-author publications were produced.
- 2013 Postdoctoral associate, INSTITUTE OF RESEARCH FOR DEVELOPMENT (IRD), Sete, France.
- Subject Modelling the trajectories of floating artificial devices and their associations to fishing vessel movement
- Supervisor Dr. David Kaplan
- Description Identification of 'at sea' and 'on board' (of a vessel) patterns in floating artificial devices trajectories through the use of hidden Markov and semi-Markov models, random forests and hybrid discriminative-generative models. All codes were written in R. One co-authored publication was produced.
- 2010–2013 PhD Thesis, UM2, Montpellier, France.
- Subject Characterizing fishermen spatial behaviour: hidden stories from trajectory data. A 2000-2009 study on the Northern Humboldt Current System.
- Supervisors Dr. Sophie Bertrand (IRD) and Dr. Ronan Fablet (Telecom-Bretagne)
- Description Trajectory data from fishing trips were analysed for characterizing fisher spatial behaviour at multiple scales. Several generative and discriminative methods were compared for inferring the behavioural mode sequences corresponding to those trajectories. Changes in those behaviours were associated to environmental changes (obtained via acoustic and satellite data), and those associations were quantified. Patterns of spatial behaviour were classified into groups related to particular fishing strategies. Programming in Matlab and R. Three first-author publications were produced.
- 2010 Master Thesis, MONTPELLIER SUPAGRO AND UM2, Montpellier, France.
- Subject Random walk model fitting and selection for fishing trajectories
- Supervisors Dr. Sophie Bertrand (IRD) and Dr. Jean-Michel Marin (UM2)
- Description Comparison of Brownian and Lévy walks through the tails of their probability distributions. Several tests of goodness-of-fit and model selection criteria were investigated, as well as the sensitivity of model selection and goodness-of-fit results to the definition of the tail of the distribution. The case of study consisted of three fishing vessel trajectories. All codes were written in R. One co-authored publication was produced.
- 2008–2009 Bachelor Thesis, UNI, Lima, Peru.
- Subject Artificial neural networks for identifying locations of fishing operations from trajectory data
- Supervisor Dr. Sophie Bertrand (IRD)

Description Calibration and sensitivity analysis of neural networks to identify geolocation records corresponding to fishing behaviour. All codes were written in Matlab. A graphic interface in Matlab was developed to facilitate a daily use of the neural network for monitoring the fishery. One first-author publication was produced.

- 2012-7 Joo. Eddies, fish, birds and fishers. The role of statistics in marine ecology. Invited conference at the 'Statistics Conferences' at UNI. Lima, Peru. December 5th, 2012.
- 2012-6 Joo, Fablet, Tam, Bertrand. Hidden semi-Markov modelling for behavioural modes in foraging movement. Oral communication at the 'IIIrd International Statistical Ecology Conference'. Krokkeiva, Norway. July 3rd to 6th, 2012.

- 2012-5 Joo, Tam, Bouchon, Atiquipa, Fablet, Bertrand. Fishing, searching or cruising? A statistical approach for modeling activities from purse-seine anchovy vessels during fishing trips. Oral communication at the 'IIIrd Conferences of Sciences of the Sea'. Lima, Peru. June 25th to 29th, 2012.
- 2012-4 Joo, Fablet, Bertrand. Reconstruction of state sequences from tracking data using bayesian Markov models. Oral communication at the 'PathTIS Trajectory Working Group Meeting'. Paris, France. June 25th, 2012.
- 2012-3 Joo. Markovian and discriminative models for modelling movement of fishing vessels. Invited conference at the 'Seminars of Applied Mathematics' at PUCP. Lima, Peru. April 10th, 2012.
- 2012-2 Joo, Fablet, Bertrand, Bouchon, Atiquipa, Tam. Searching, fishing or travelling? A statistical approach for modelling fishers' behaviour. Oral communication at the 'Dynamics of the Humboldt Current System Working Group Meeting'. Callao, Peru. March 31st, 2012.
- 2012-1 Joo. Markovian processes for modelling the movement of fishing vessels. Oral communication at the 'Seminars of Statistics and Probabilities' at UM2. Montpellier, France. January 30th, 2012.
- 2011-3 Joo. A statistical approach for modelling the movement of fishing vessels. Oral communication at the Laboratory of Sciences of the Marine Environment. Brest, France. December 15th, 2011.
- 2011-2 Joo. Markovian processes for modelling the movement of fishing vessels. Oral communication at the 'Seminars of the Information and Communication Science and Technology Laboratory' at Telecom Bretagne. Brest, France. December 1st, 2011.
- 2011-1 Joo. How do biotic interactions and environmental conditions shape the movement of fishing vessels? Oral communication at the 'Top predators as indicators of exploited marine ecosystem dynamics Project Meeting'. Sete, France. October 5th, 2011.
- 2010-1 Joo, Bertrand, Marin, Fablet, Oliveros-Ramos. Random-walk approach for modelling animal movement. Oral communication at the 'XXVth International Biometric Conference'. Floripa, Brazil. December 5th to 10th, 2010.

Teaching activities

(387 hours)

- 2021-1 'Machine learning in R'. Instructor. Online course organized by the Cousteau Consultant Group. 18 hours. April, 2021.
- 2020-2 'R for Biologging'. Instructor. Online course organized by the Universidad Científica del Sur, Lima, Peru. 36 hours. November-December, 2020.
- 2020-1 'Movement visualization with R'. Instructor during the moving2gather conference at Agrocampus Ouest, Rennes, France. 2 hours. March, 2020.

- 2019-1 'Data Carpentry - Ecology Workshop' (data organization, cleaning, management, visualization and analysis with R and SQL). Instructor and helper at the Tropical Research and Education Center, University of Florida, Homestead, USA. 14 hours. April, 2019.
- 2018-2 'Hidden Markov models with MomentuHMM'. Workshop instructor at the University of Liverpool, Liverpool, UK. 4 hours. May, 2018.
- 2018-1 'Data Carpentry - Ecology Workshop' (data organization, cleaning, management, visualization and analysis with R and SQL). Instructor and helper at the Fort Lauderdale Research and Education Center, University of Florida, Davie, USA. 14 hours. April, 2018.
- 2017-1 'Statistics for research and R'. Statistics instructor in the 'Field Techniques and Tropical Ecology Course' at the Cocha Cashu Biological Station, Manu National Park, Peru. 55 hours. October, 2017.
- 2015-8 'Processing and analysing Vessel Monitoring System data'. Workshop instructor (talks and practical work for researchers and master students). Fishing Institute (IFOP). Valparaiso, Chile. 30 hours. December, 2015.
- 2015-7 'Multivariate Analysis'. Lecturer. Masters program in Statistics at PUCP. Lima, Peru. 16 hours. November–December, 2015.
- 2015-6 'Time Series with R'. Instructor. Workshop at IMARPE. Callao, Peru. 25 hours. November, 2015.
- 2015-5 'Geostatistics'. Instructor. Workshop at PUCP. Lima, Peru. 10 hours. August, 2015.
- 2015-4 'Movement Ecology'. Instructor. Workshop at United Nations Development Programme headquarters. Lima, Peru. 8 hours. July, 2015.
- 2015-3 'Data Mining'. Lecturer. Masters program in Statistics at PUCP. Lima, Peru. 32 hours. May–July, 2015.
- 2015-2 'Geostatistics'. Instructor. Workshop at IMARPE. Callao, Peru. 25 hours. April, 2015.
- 2015-1 'Movement Ecology'. Instructor. Workshop at Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University. Port Elizabeth, South Africa. 8 hours. February, 2015.
- 2011-1 'Introduction to R Programming'. Instructor. Workshop at IMARPE. Callao, Peru. 8 hours. July, 2011.
- 2010-1 'Statistics'. Lecturer. Masters program in Marine Science at UPCH. Lima, Peru. 10 hours. October, 2010.
- 2007-1 'Biostatistics'. Teaching assistant. Undergraduate program in Statistics Engineering at UNI. Lima, Peru. 60 hours. September 2007 to January 2008.
- 2005-1 'Introduction to Statistics'. Lecturer. Undergraduate program in Statistics Engineering at UNI. Lima, Peru. 12 hours. October, 2005.

Students and dissertation committees

(6 as main advisor; 4 in master level; 7 in bachelor level)

- 2022–2025 Miguel Angel Osnaya Miranda. Analyzing vessel movement of the artisanal fishing fleet to identify fishing gear in Yucatan. Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México. Merida, Mexico. Master in Sciences. Marine Biology. Dissertation Committee. Main advisor: E. Torres Irineo.
- 2023 Maite Arangüena-Proañó. Using miniature cameras and remote sensing to monitor the industrial anchovy fishing: Sula variegata as a sampler. Universidade Federal do Rio Grande. Rio Grande, Brazil. Master in Biological Oceanography. Dissertation Committee. Main advisor: L. Bugoni.
- 2019–2021 Jenicca Poongavanan. Reproducibility in movement ecology. University of Florida. Gainesville, USA. Master in the School of Natural Resources and the Environment.
- 2016–2017 Pablo Marin. Comparing classification methods for fishing trips in the Peruvian pelagic fishery. Major National University of San Marcos (UNMSM). Lima, Peru. Master in Statistics.
- 2016–2017 Paul Tacuri. Analysing the spatial behaviour of artisanal fishers through their fishing set locations and species composition. UNMSM. Lima, Peru. Bachelor in Biology.
- 2016–2017 Icaro Santos Da Silva. Spatial patterns of open sea canoes out of Sergipe waters. Federal University of Sergipe. Sergipe, Brazil. Bachelor in Fisheries Science. Main advisor: M. Thomé de Souza.
- 2016–2017 Fiorella Vilela. Inter-season variability of the anchovy fishery daily catches from 2002 to 2015. Peruvian University Cayetano Heredia (UPCH). Lima, Peru. Bachelor in Biology. Main advisor: E. Diaz.
- 2015–2016 Marissela Pozada. Multivariate characterization of the fishing sets in the Peruvian pelagic fishery using on-board observers' data. National Agrarian University of La Molina. Lima, Peru. Bachelor in Fisheries Science.
- 2014–2015 Rommy Camasca. Comparing random field patterns modelled under a geostatistical approach: an application to fisheries ecology. UNI. Lima, Peru. Bachelor in Statistics Engineering.
- 2014–2015 Christian Amao. Spatio-temporal patterns of variability related to El Niño Southern Oscillation characterized via Empirical Orthogonal Functions and the time-domain analysis of principal components. UNI. Lima, Peru. Bachelor in Statistics Engineering. Main advisor: S. Camiz (Sapienza Università di Roma). Other advisors: D. Grados, C. Quispe, J. Tam, A. Ordoñez
- 2013–2014 Omar Salcedo. Hierarchical and non hierarchical clustering methods and quasi-experimental design for characterizing fishing trip strategies. UNI. Lima, Peru. Bachelor in Statistics Engineering.
